

We strongly support Wisconsin's no-call list and object to any attempts to change it. Telemarketers often prey on the elderly and the poor, and it is in the best interests of the public for people to be protected. People have a right to privacy in their homes.